Is Merlot Washington's greatest red wine grape? In this time of merlot apathy, Washington is still producing some of the top examples from this grape. Curious about the best? Leonetti and Woodward Canyon were the first two bonded wineries in Walla Walla and today produce some of the most lush, fleshy, and utterly hedonistic examples of this classic wine. www.leonetticellar & www.woodwardcanyon.com

Celebrate Washington Wine
Every year Seattle-area restaurants celebrate the Washington wine industry, culminating in the premier wine event called Taste Washington in March. This year we want to introduce you to some of our Washington favorites with these great examples of our state's bounty for you to enjoy. Washington State has over 700 bonded wineries, with a 3 billion dollar impact to the state economy. Washington is the second largest producer of wine in the United States. www.washingtonwine.org

1973 was an historic year for the great Bordeaux houses on the left bank of the Gironde River. In that year Chateau Mouton-Rothschild successfully changed status as established in the 1855 classification, moving from 2nd growth to 1st, a feat which hasn't been replicated since. Then, in 1982, Chateau Mouton-Rothschild again became a part of history. A little known wine critic, Robert Parker Jr., declared the wine perfect and bestowed a 100 point rating. The artist label commemorating this great vintage is the actor/director John Huston.

A close relative to Cabernet Sauvignon (Cabernet Franc and Sauvignon Blanc are said to be Cabernet Sauvignon's parents) this grape is well suited to the cooler climate in the Loire, specifically in Chinon and Saumur-Champigny. Lighter in fruit and body than Cabernet Sauvignon, this grape is revered for its aromatics. The wine is incredibly heady and perfumed, with hints of violet and cassis. www.loirevalleywine.com*

If anyone embodies the promise and spirit of 'The New Spain', it's Alvaro Palacios. One of nine children born to the owners of Rioja's respected Palacios Remondo, Alvaro studied enology in Bordeaux, while working under Jean-Pierre Moueix at Ch. Pétrus. He credits his tenure at Pétrus for much of his winemaking philosophy and for showing him "the importance of great wines." From Alvaro's original vineyard, Finca Dofí is a blend of Garnacha, Cabernet, and Syrah. Finca Dofí combines power and richness with great breed and finesse.
